NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. (Scale 1-10) How well does the church deal with the topic of human love? Explain your answer.
3. Would being positive about human love make any real difference? If so, where and to whom? If not, why not?
4. What struck you about the way the 'church fathers' handled the issue of sexual intimacy? How easy is it for you to 'reject what is bad' and 'cling to what is good' in what a person teaches?
5. (Scale 1-10) How helpful were the four guideposts for understanding the book? Which of the four guideposts was the most helpful to you? Why?
6. "Eros without shame is not shameless eros." In the Holland area, what expressions of shameless eros do you mostly encounter?
7. "Eros is never more free than when experienced within the boundaries God set for it." How has this proven true in your life?
8. How easy is it for you, if married, to dialogue daily, date weekly and depart quarterly? What would it take to make these three things a priority?
