NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. Which scripture that Sara referenced (or perhaps another that you are recalling) refers to a side of God or His perspective towards you that is fresh to you?
3. What part of the passage from Luke 8:22-48 do you most identify with?
4. After today's message, what might be a new side to God's character – and His view of you – for you to consider, from His Word?
