

Craig Rees*The Space Between: Wrong and Justice

07/02/17

NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. (Scale 1-10 with 1 being less) You usually have it in your mind how you want God to answer your prayers.
3. When God doesn't give you the answer you want, how well do you respond?
4. For Habakkuk it was national security, but what circumstances have caused or would cause you to doubt whether you can trust God?
5. "God sometimes uses the less righteous to discipline the less wicked." How has God used a painful trial, one that to all intents and purposes was wrong, to work on your heart?
6. When challenged by God or others, how likely are you to compare yourself to others in order to lighten the challenge?
7. Describe someone who has the inspirational ability to turn worry into worship. What is that person like? What have you learned from that person that both challenges and inspires you?
8. How easy do you find it to remain in an attitude of dependent prayer while working through wrong and worry? What lessons can we learn from Habakkuk 2:1-2 and chapter 3 about turning worry into worship?