PROVERBS 1:1-7

The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:
for gaining wisdom and instruction;
for understanding words of insight;
for receiving instruction in prudent behavior,
doing what is right and just and fair;
for giving prudence to those who are simple, knowledge and discretion to the young—
let the wise listen and add to their learning, and let the discerning get guidance—

for understanding proverbs and parables, the sayings and riddles of the wise.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge,
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

JAMES 3:17

But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.

“A Key to Proverbs is that as the Fear of the Lord increases the more grace and forgiveness are experienced. ALL the advice for daily living assumes a Holy God who redeems us by Grace.”

PROVERBS 8:22-23

The Lord brought me (wisdom) forth as the first of his works before his deeds of old;
I was formed long ages ago,
at the very beginning, when the world came to be.,
before the hills, I was given birth,

ALBERTUS CHRISTIAAN VAN RAALTE

Today he speaks to us
as he did to his followers on the 25th anniversary of his founding of our Holland Community in 1847:

Beloved, who follow us in this inheritance, we give it over to you with joy. But do not forget, we received it from God as a training school for eternity - a work place for God's kingdom.
This shall prosper in your hands provided God and His kingdom remain your precious portion in life.
