Jonah 3:9

Jonah 4:8-11

1. If you were Jonah and God asked you to go to Nineveh, what would be going through your mind? Modern version: If God asked you to go to Moscow and tell Russia to repent, would you do it?
2. Is there something God is telling you to do, but you do not want to do it? If so, why? What is stopping you from being willing to even though you do not want to?
3. Just like Jonah felt about Nineveh, is there a person or people it is hard for you to imagine God having compassion for? If so, why?
4. Why do you think it is, that it is so easy for Christians to forget that we were all once Nineveh and God had compassion on us?
