

WE LOVE HOLLAND

Living an Exemplary Life in a Skeptical World: Patty Jones Main Auditorium | 5 November 2023

"Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from the passions of the flesh, which wage war against your soul. 12 Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation." 1 Peter 2:11-12

"To the contrary, "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by doing so you will heap burning coals on his head." Romans 12:20

1. Share a personal experience where you felt challenged or mocked for your beliefs. How did you respond?
2. What does it mean to you to not make yourself "cozy" in this world? How do you balance being in the world but not of it?
3. In what ways can you better challenge the prejudices non-believers may have about Christians?
4. Can you recall a time when you showed love and kindness without expecting anything in return?
5. How do you ensure that your actions genuinely reflect Christ's love, especially in a world increasingly skeptical of Christianity?
6. Share a time when someone's everyday act of kindness deeply impacted your life or faith.
7. How can your Central community work together to give hope to Holland through everyday acts of kindness?
