DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

4.7.19 • KORY CASSELL

1. There are times in our lives when we thought we knew something, but later realize we really had no idea. Share one of those times with the group.
2. Do you ever have “questions in the night”—those deep questions you keep finding yourself coming back to about life and eternity? What are some of those questions you wrestle with?
3. If you were Nicodemus, how would you have responded when Jesus referred to himself as the Savior?
4. What does the term, “born again,” mean to you? Have you experienced this in your own life?
5. In light of all that Jesus said to Nicodemus that night, how should His words affect your life from day-to-day?
