

PROVERBS 11:24-28

One person gives freely, yet gains even more; another withholds unduly, but comes to poverty. A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed. People curse the one who hoards grain, but they pray God's blessing on the one who is willing to sell. Whoever seeks good finds favor, but evil comes to one who searches for it. Those who trust in their riches will fall, but the righteous will thrive like a green leaf.

PSALM 6:6

I am worn out from my groaning. All night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.

DEUTERONOMY 31:20

“When I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I promised on oath to their ancestors, and when they eat their fill and thrive, they will turn to other gods and worship them, rejecting me and breaking my covenant.”

DEUTERONOMY 32:15

Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; filled with food, they became heavy and sleek. They abandoned the God who made them and rejected the Rock their Savior.

“We cannot offer the gift of self to one another if we ourselves are entirely consumed by consumption; wholly given over to a relentless fast-paced life in which the more we earn, the more we spend, the more we need to earn—on and on without any apparent end.”

LUKE 12:15

'Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions."

Greed is the desire to have more, to get one's hands on whatever one can, to acquire without reference to one's own specific needs or the situation of others.
