

POV

BLIND BEGGAR BART

AUG 14 • 2022 • KORY CASSELL

KEY SCRIPTURE:

Luke 18:35-43

1. Is there a “wrong place” you seem to keep finding yourself in life? Maybe it’s a wrong mental, emotional, or physical place—but why do you think you keep going there and have you experienced it being the “wrong time” yet? To put it another way...have you gone to that wrong place so often that something bad finally happened? How do you think we can we recognize a “wrong place” in our lives?
2. What is a “right place” you feel like you need to start putting yourself in more often? Maybe it’s a small group, regular church attendance, the gym, healthier restaurants, around successful people, in class, etc... what is that place for you?
3. What is the “swing for the fences” prayer you have been afraid to pray? What is it you really want from God?
4. What is that move you need to take that you have been putting off?