Romans 12:9-10a

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in love.

A group of people is shown in a dark, dimly lit environment. The central figure is a person wearing a light-colored t-shirt with the word "HOPE" printed on it. The background is dark and textured, possibly a wall or a large screen. The overall mood is somber and reflective. The text "Devotion involves the affections" is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font across the middle of the image. There are red and green geometric shapes at the corners and bottom of the frame.

Devotion involves the affections

You can't have Biblical community without Biblical affection.

J.D.G. Dunn

The organic imagery of the interrelatedness of the body requires to be supplemented by the emotional bond of family affection (“your feelings of deep affection for one another”).

Romans 1:31

... have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy.

2 Timothy 3:3

...without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good.

Devotional connection is stronger than blood connection

Hebrews 13:1

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters.

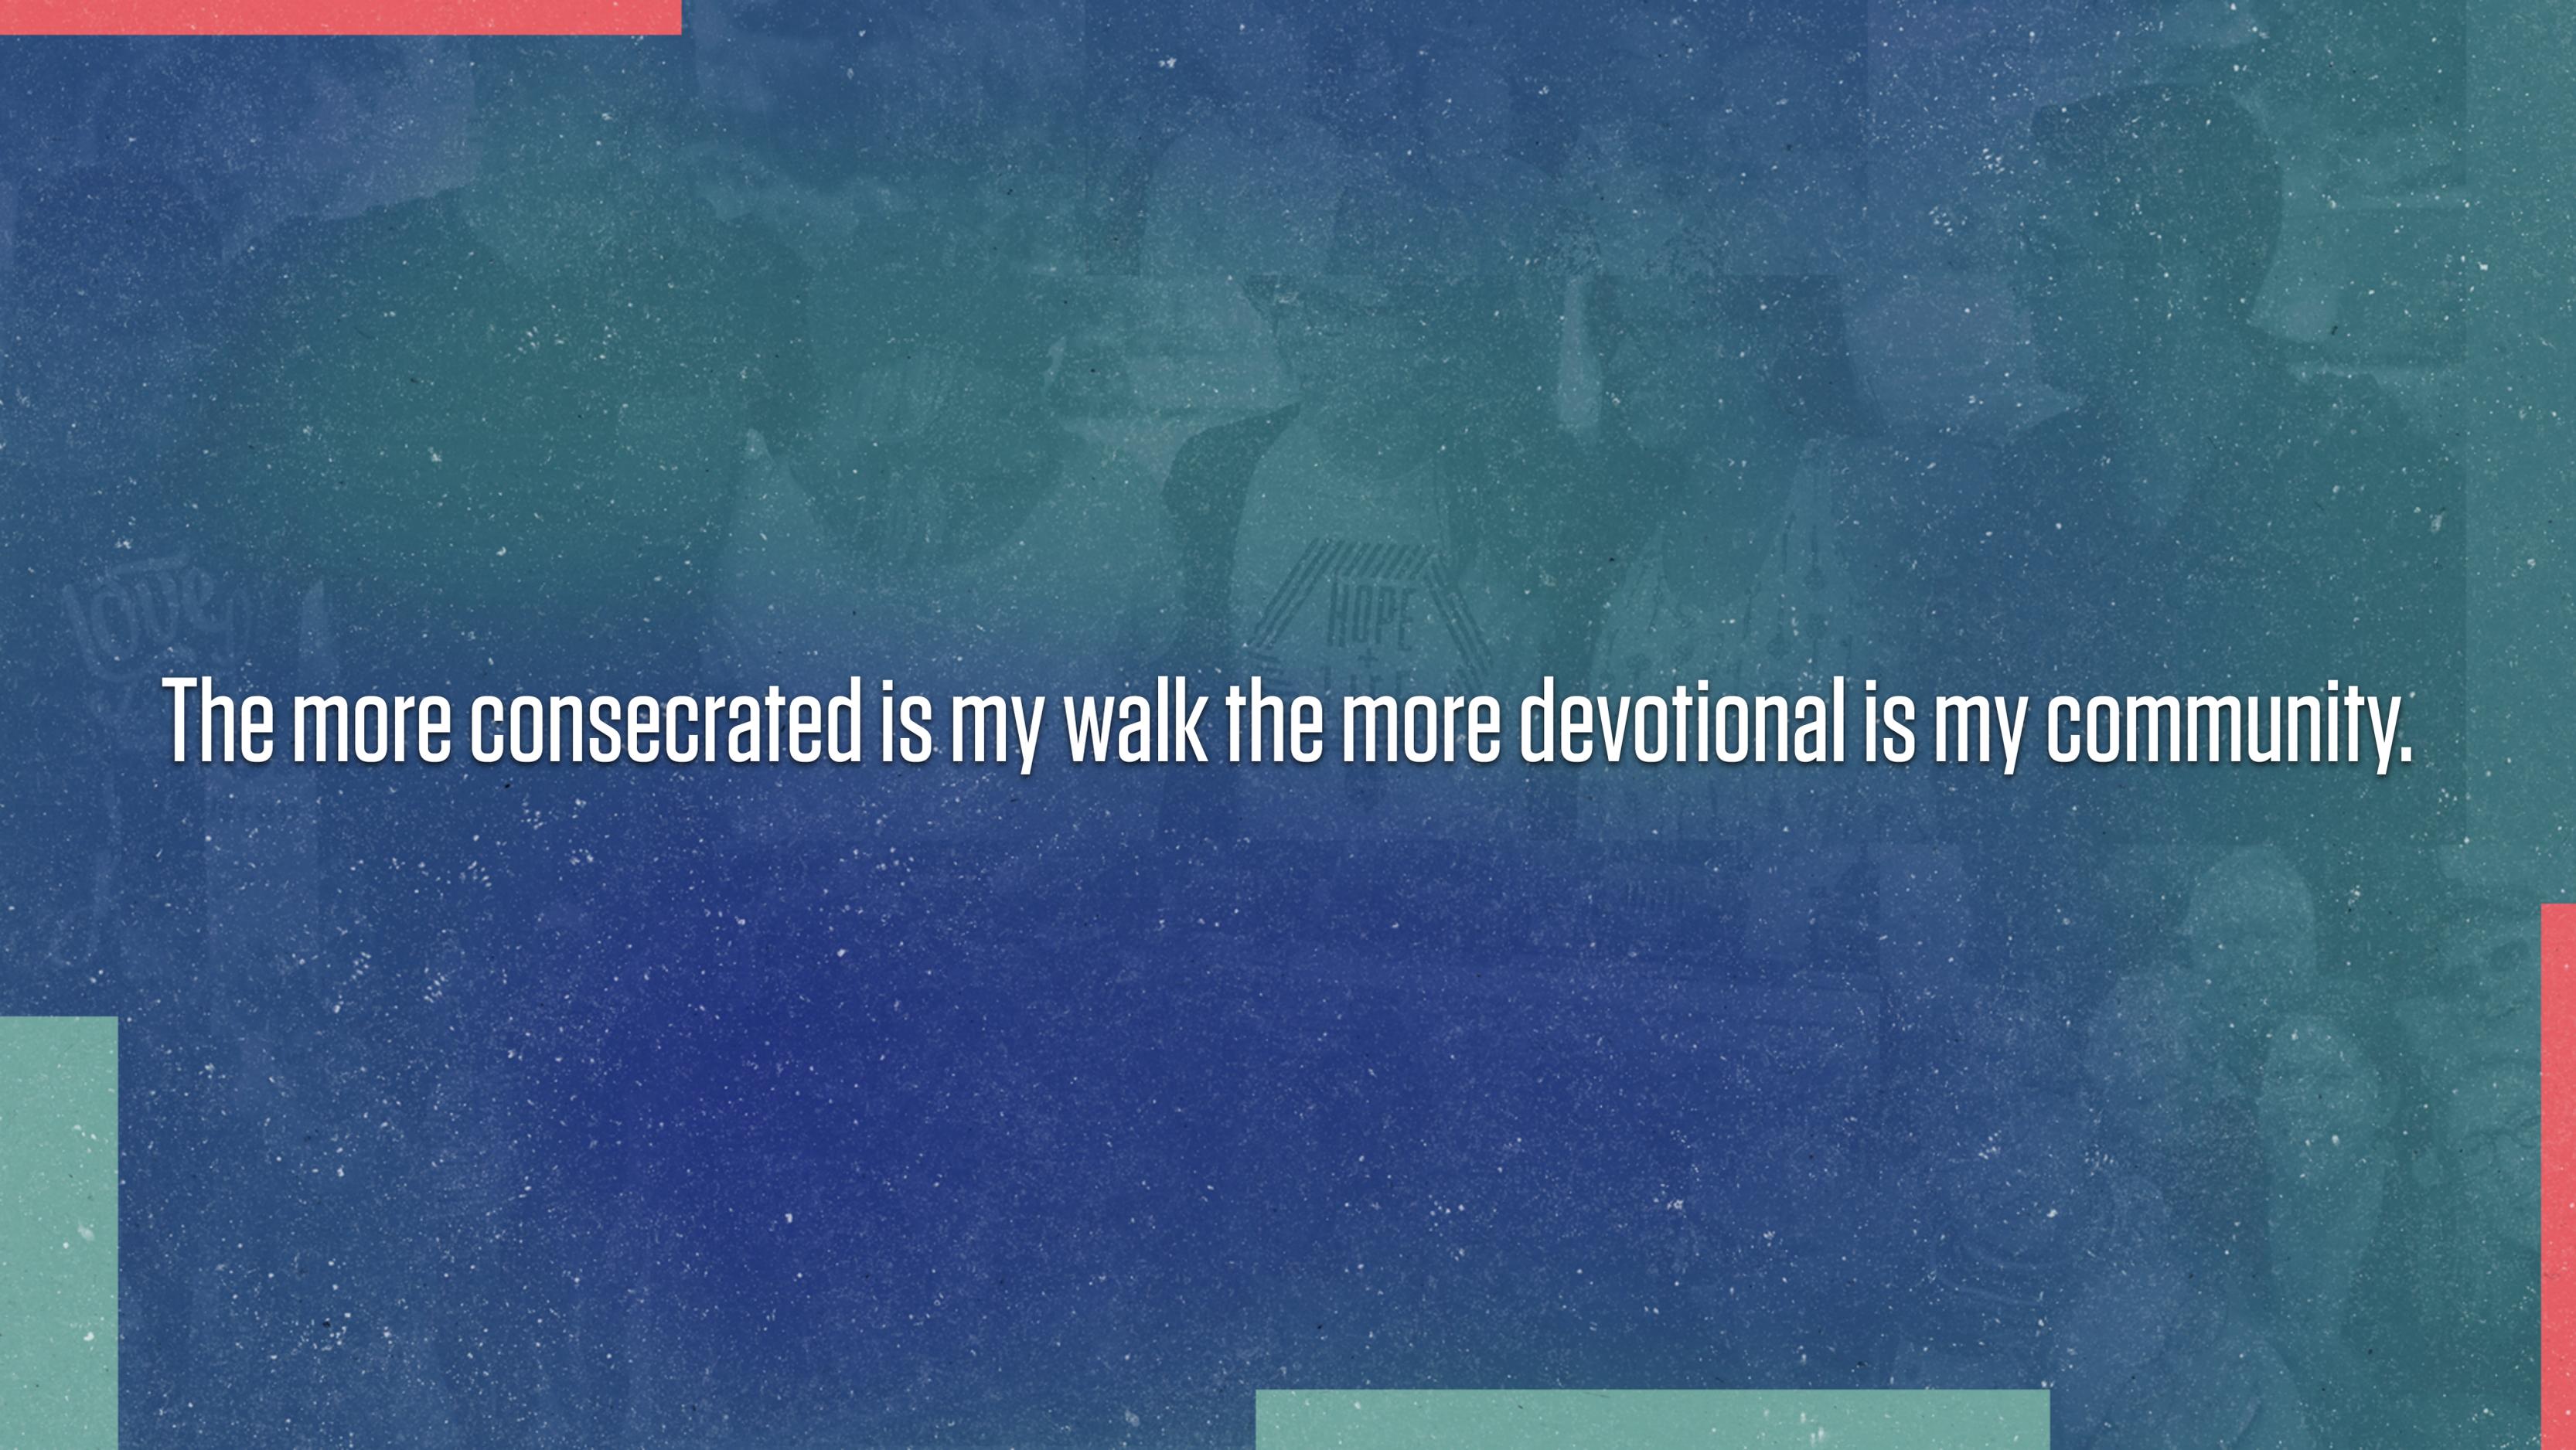

1 Peter 1:22-23

Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply, from the heart. For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

1 Peter 1:22-23

Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply, from the heart. For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

A group of people, likely a church congregation, is shown in a dimly lit setting. The background is dark with a blue and green color palette. In the center, a person is wearing a light-colored t-shirt with the word "HOPE" printed on it. The overall atmosphere is solemn and focused.

The more consecrated is my walk the more devotional is my community.
