NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway?
2. True love is risky: When have you had to be risky in your story? What was the result? What did you learn?
3. Put yourself into this story: How would you respond to your son in these circumstances? Explain your answer.
4. What do you learn from the Father's loving reaction to his unworthy son?
5. How can you express this type of love to your own children? Or those close to you?
6. When have you been welcomed home and restored back to the family by the Father?
7. How does this story give you a new appreciation of the Gospel? (2 Cor. 5:21)
8. The Father is willing to humiliate Himself to welcome you home with open arms. What difference does this Truth make in your life?
9. Knowing that the Father welcomes you home in extravagant love - How does this this Truth impact your relationship with Him?
