THE KINGS AND PROPHETS OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH

The king hears a word from God, and he takes drastic measures to obey.

When you hear a word from God, take whatever measures necessary – however drastic – to obediently respond.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to stumble, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.”

Matthew 5:27-30

“hear”

listening + obeying = hearing

“I fear that many people seek to hear God solely as a device for obtaining their own safety, comfort and sense of being righteous. For those who busy themselves to know the will of God, however, it is still true that ‘those who want to save their life will lose it’ (Mt 16:25).”
