NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. When have you, like Levi, lost your way? When did life get messy for you?
3. What is your reaction to Jesus' pursuit of Levi given his life as a tax collector? What does this tell you about Jesus?
4. How can the Church replicate this type of pursuit of people? How can you as an individual pursue sinners who recognize their need for hope and healing?
5. How has God's pursuit of you changed your life?
