NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message?
2. In the context you grew up in, what was the general feeling towards sex? Only for procreation?
It was bad or dirty? Something you just didn't talk about? Something good to be enjoyed?
3. In a society that worships the goddess of sex, do you find it difficult to have an honest conversation about the goodness of sex in its appropriate context?
4. "Marriage breeds hope that what's divided can be united." Where have you seen this reality being played out in your life, or in the lives of others?
5. Brad indicated that many single people are made to believe that if they're not married and experiencing sex, they're missing out, or that they're "less than" in some way. Has this been your experience? If you're single, is this how others have made you feel?
6. Jesus taught that there wouldn't be marriages in heaven? Did you know Jesus taught this?
What was your response to hearing this again or learning it for the first time?
7. What's divided or broken in your life that you desire God to restore or unite?
