

OUR MISSION IN THIS MOMENT

ED STETZER

KEY SCRIPTURE:

John 20:19-21

Romans 14:8

Isaiah 6:8

1. What was your major take-away from this message?

If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord—Romans 14:8

2. Fear is often personified by being locked, immovable, or hardened. Have you ever experienced fear in that way? What does it take to move past it?

4. What does a verse like Romans 14:8 mean to you?

3. Jesus provides a peace that surpasses all understanding and societal norms but can you recall a person or moment in your life that gave you peace? What would it look like to give someone else peace?

5. Following Jesus often calls us to move, not always zip codes or occupations, but into hearts and lives. Never staying in the valley nor the summit, but having faith in Him through every season of our lives. How has God asked you to move in the past? What is one step you can take this week towards a person, a decision, or towards peace?
