

RADICAL MINIMUM

THE BEST STUFF WE'RE NOT DOING

1.21.18

PASTOR CRAIG REES

SCRIPTURE: WHO'S READING WHO?

Discussion Questions

BOTTOM LINE:
MANY STRUGGLE TO READ GOD'S WORD
 CONSISTENTLY,
 BECAUSE GOD'S WORD
 DOESN'T READ THEM.

KEY VERSES:
HEBREWS 4:12-13

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. Why does the bare minimum seem not only so radical but even legalistic? What has helped you overcome the feelings of either legalism or dead religion when it comes to praying and reading the Bible each day?
3. If you could describe your current Scripture reading practice in one word, what would it be?
4. After hearing this message, which approach to engage with Scripture best suits you in this season of life: reading or being read?
5. Have you ever had a moment where you experienced "sweaty palms" and "consuming flame" while reading Scripture?
6. How, practically speaking, does reading the Bible differ from being read by the Bible? In answering this question, think of quantity of Scripture being read and the attitude and approach to the text.
7. Have you signed up for the 28 Days of Radical Minimum Group? If not, why not? How has this helped you?

JOIN THE 28 DAYS OF RADICAL MINIMUM
 FACEBOOK GROUP AT CENTRALWESLEYAN.ORG/28DAYS