DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Have you ever read all of Psalm 119? It's the longest chapter in the Bible and takes about fifteen minutes to read all the way through. If you have the time, read it in its entirety.
2. What emotion does the Psalmist express throughout this passage?
3. Many people struggle to find the Scripture relevant to their daily lives. What value does the Psalmist find in regularly engaging with God's word?
4. The writer says God's word offers a clear direction.
 - Do you know where you're going in your spiritual life?
 - Do you have a clear destination?
 - Do you know how you're going to get there?
5. The writer says studying God's law gives us understanding.
 - Do you have crystal clear clarity on what God says is true?
 - Are you being honest about the paths you are on these days?
 - Where are you getting your understanding about what truly matters?
6. The writer says God's word is like a light, a lamp.
 - Is there an area in your life where you feel you running into the dark? If so, why?
 - Or are you holding steady with your lamp? If so, how are you able to get clarity on your next step, even if life feels overwhelming?
